Oction that in this, our first centennial, there apends over the nation dangers greater and more imminent than in 1860. The people d not believe them—they do not now—

I NOW have the Tax-books for the State, Holly Springs, October 31.—The which arrived before Javor from the charging him with forging bonds on the month of the Work Central, and Buffalo, and their disbelier, if not eriminal creduity, in the New York Central, and Buffalo, and their disbelier, if not eriminal creduity, in the New York Central, and Buffalo, and their disbelier than the results of the Section of the Sectio and their disbelief, if not criminal credulity, rests on the falsehoods of treason and its allies, who are listened to now as they were before and during the war for the Union. In truth, this canvass is conducted in the very presence of actual war. As will be understood, the Democratic plan is to carry a "sold south." Only the simple and willingly deceived are blind to what this means. Through the alu of Morrissey, Kelly and O'Brien in the north, with their roughs and repeaters, they hope to add to a "solid south" votes enough to elect their ticket. But suppose the Democratis secure a "solid south," and lack a few votes only of a majority. Here lies one source of danger. A Democratic house will not want an excuse to throw out enough Sepublican votes either to declare their own candidate elected or also that the heads of the Cannot and their taxes within the ninety days, and save me the necessity of issuing executions and themselves the annoyance and expense of neglect.

NOW have the Tax-books for the State. County and City, for the year 1878. The law requires that in ninety days after the recipt of the tax-books, all unpaid taxes shall be put in the hands of constables in each civil district and ward of the city. Such bills have the force and effect of an execution, and will be levied upon any personal property found, at the cost of 50 cents for the levy and 4 per cent, commission. It will be my duty to enforce the law to its very letter, and I cannot too strongly insist upon all tax-payers to pay their taxes within the ninety days, and save me the necessity of issuing executions and themselves the annoyance and expense of neglect.
